Step back in time and experience the timeless character of this beautiful Colonial in Watertown, built in 1840. Ideally situated on a spacious corner lot. Rich with rustic charm and historic details, this unique home features original wood floors, generous living spaces, and several fireplaces that add warmth and character throughout. The large kitchen provides plenty of room for gathering and everyday living, while a cozy den with a pellet stove opens to a stunning sunroom featuring soaring ceilings, exposed beams, and an abundance of windows overlooking the expansive backyard. With three...
